Adult Activities

The Book Exchange is meeting on Tuesday, February 10 at 7 pm to discuss The Winner by David Baldacci. In this thriller, LuAnn Tyler, a twenty-year-old streetwise unwed mother in Rikersville, Georgia, is striving to escape an abusive relationship and a life of endless poverty. Under duress, she accepts a mysterious offer to be the next winner of the $100 million lottery—the catch, she must leave the country and never return. Ten years later, she secretly returns to the U. S. She finds herself being punished by her benefactor and pursued by the FBI for charges of lottery fixing. For more information, call 419-433-5009 or e-mail huron@huronlibrary.org.

Mystery Book Group will meet on Wednesday, February 18 at 7 PM. Skeleton's Knee by Archer Mayor will be the discussion book. Detective Joe Gunther is investigating the death of a man who lived a hermit's life in Brattleboro, Vermont. After it is discovered that the man died from a year-old gunshot wound, Gunther finds a fortune squirreled away in the dead man's cabin. This mysterious finding leads Gunther on a trail that takes him to Chicago. For more information, call the library at 419-433-5009.

Gaming Night for Adults is on Wednesday, February 11, 6:30 - 8:00 PM. Grab a partner or go it alone and get your game on! We have Wii games in need of some Miis! There are several different sports you can play or try your hand at "Dance Dance Revolution." This program is for adults only, so come and find out what the games are all about. For more information, call 419-433-5009.

Basic Computing Classes will be Wednesdays, March 25 and April 1 from 6 - 8 PM. In this two-part, hands-on series for beginners, you will learn the basics about computers, the Internet and e-mail. These free classes are for adults. Stop in or call the library at 419-433-5009 to register.

Thursday Night Theatre

Thursday, February 19
6 PM

This month, we proudly present IGOR. This film brings us a new twist on the classic mad scientist/monster genre. Igor is a hunchbacked lab assistant who has big dreams of becoming a mad scientist himself and winning the first place prize at the annual Evil Science Fair in this animated comedy. This movie has been rated PG by the MPAA and will run 87 minutes. Refreshments will be available for a nominal fee from 5:30 to 6:30 PM. For more information, call 419-433-5009.
