Annual Literary Magazine
We are accepting submissions for the 2024 Community Literary Magazine: A Community Writes. Submissions must fall under the category short story or poem and be no longer than 1000 words. The application is free and can be found on our website or at the library at both circulation and adult services desk. The application and piece of work can be sent via email to Rebekah.Hire-Santoro@HuronLibrary.org. Applications are due by April 30.
A reading of the submissions will take place on Sunday, May 19 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

NEW: Memory Kits
Thanks to a grant from the Erie County Community Foundation, our Library of Things now includes memory kits. Memory kits are intended for those patrons who are helping family members or friends with dementia. Topics in the fifteen kits include 1960s, pets, patriotic, handyman, winter, and more. Each kit includes a DVD, activity and picture cards, a busy bottle, and a book on the topic. A large print word search puzzle book, fidget toys, and information about the Alzheimer's Association are included for the patron to keep.

Pardon our Dust
Our children's area and circulation desk will be renovated starting Monday, March 25 (subject to change). Certain areas of the Library will not be accessible to patrons during the renovation. Check social media and e-newsletters for updates. Be on the lookout for signage throughout the Library regarding updates and area closings.

THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Get Involved!
Become a member of Friends of Huron Public Library!

Becoming a member of the Friends of Huron Public Library is a great way to support all the wonderful activities and programming offered at our incredible library. Membership shows your pride and dedication to continued learning opportunities and gets you early access to books sales. NOW is a great time to renew your membership or start a new membership if you haven’t already done so for 2024. Please see the membership form on this page or on the Friends section of the Huron Public Library website.

All members of Friends of Huron Public Library (and those who want to join) are invited to our Annual Meeting – Tuesday, March 12, 2024 at 6 p.m. at the Library. Immediately following that meeting, the regular monthly meeting of the executive board will take place.

The Friends of Huron Public Library wish to thank the Mylander Foundation for the grant we received to fund our new Memory Lab. Although the lab has not yet found a permanent home, and not all the “pieces are in place,” some aspects of it are already being used. We are excited to offer this service to HPL patrons and look forward to it being fully functioning in the near future!

Be a part of something great; become a Friend of Huron Public Library.
